The Olympic Games are over with 16 days of athletic competition now history in the host Brazilian city of Rio. Olympians and fans said goodbye to the Rio Games Sunday night, extinguishing the Olympic flame and then turning the celebration into a samba dance party. Canadian athletes did well in Rio, winning 22 medals -- including four gold -- to put us 10th in the overall medal standings. The U.S dominated the overall medal count with 121, followed by China with 70. Penny Oleksiak capped her unforgettable Rio experience by carrying the Canadian flag into Maracana Stadium for the Olympic closing ceremony. The 16-year-old swimmer from Toronto won four medals in Rio, including Canada's first gold. Oleksiak began her medal haul with a team bronze in the 4x100 freestyle relay on the first Saturday of competition, then rocketed to silver in the 100 butterfly the following night. There was another team relay bronze, before she surged to gold in the 100 freestyle.
